

INCLUSION WITH SENSITIVITY:

Visual Representations

There are over eight million Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) parents and an estimated fourteen million children with LGBT families in the United States

(Jeltova, 2005; Kosciw, Diaz, & Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Education Network, 2008)

LGBT parents are just as involved, if not, more so because of their efforts to ensure safety and quality with their children in schools
(Farr et al., 2010; Kosciw et al., 2008; White, 2008)

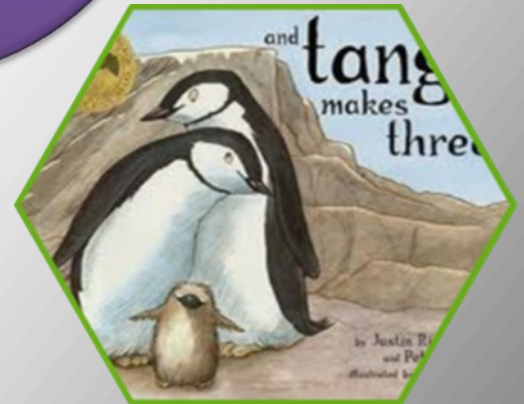

Storytelling

Flexibility with Projects and Documents

Books with LGBT Families

Schools often follow a traditional family model, leaving out diverse family structures

(Jeltova, 2005; Vaccaro et al., 2012; Bower & Klecka, 2009; Lindsay et al., 2006; Saffron, 1998).

TEACHING CHILDREN WITH LGBTQ FAMILIES